URBANA UNION.

CITY AND COUNTY.

The editor is absent this week.

Mr. W. G. Maitland of Kingston, will please call at this office. We have information for him.

They were blessed with a fine rain in one part of Logan county, last Sunday evening.

YESTERDAY and to-day are the longest days of the year—14 hour and 30 minutes from sunrise to sunset.

The aggregate loss of the 45th Regiment in the Georgia battles was 209. It fought terribly, as its loss proves.

Worse than Nails.—Up in Tiffin they use pretzels for change. Such currency doesn't circulate very long.

134th.—The latest intelligence from this regiment is contained in a letter from Lieut. Col. Todd, which states that it is in the left wing of Butler's army.
We hope that wing will never have to fly.

A destructive fire occurred in Sandusky city last Friday afternoon. It originated in the Townsend House, which was entirely consumed, with several other buildings. Loss $20,000; insured for $7,000.

High Priced Land.—The Commissioners of Madison county recently purchased of Mr. Josiah Watson 1104 acres of land at $95 an acre, for a county industrial farm. The land lies near London.

A book came into a printing office to be printed. "Because," said the printer, "we like to read newspapers very much, but our neighbors are all too stingy to take one." This reminds us that the printer is a reading man, and "keeps up" his stock of stores, tinware and furnishing goods, so that buyers can always find a good supply. Call and see his stock.

An exchange paper says, "there is something inexplicable about this girl." The Louisville Journal adds, "and it grows on us as they get bigger." The Journal man is talking at random, and knows nothing of the large and splendid stock of goodsware and China ware at Glenn & Co's store. Their goods are imported direct, and sold at the lowest figures.

Almost every young lady is patriotic enough to have her father's house used as a Court House. Yes; and to visit Henshaw's Ladies for cream saloon, tiger delirious, and partake of the delicacies of the season.
Have you been at Henshaw's, ladies? Give him a call.

No VII of Harper's History of the Great Rebellion has been received. It contains the account of the Battle of Bull Run, the organization of the Potomac army under McClellan, and the Battle of Ball's Bluff. This history is thorough, and is the best illustrated of any published.

First Train from New York.— On Monday last Mr. Henshaw arrived at Dayton with his palatial car, on the newly laid track of the A. & G. W. Railway.
It is rumored that on the 22d inst. (tomorrow) a train of cars will run without change from Jersey City to St. Louis.

The veteran Samuel Pike, who has been the publisher of something less than a half hundred papers, has become the editor and proprietor of the Washington Register, and that paper appears in a new dress, and generally improved throughout. The Register boasts the name of Hon. William Allen for its President.

A Rheumatism Cure.—It is a blessing to the suffering to know that we have an effectual cure for this troublesome disease. Mr.
J. P. Henshaw, of 164 Second street, Cincinnati, O., tells great pleasure in informing all who are suffering from piles that he has a small quantity of Dr. Strickland's Pile Remedy, and it effected a permanent cure. This seems to be the case with all who make use of this splendid preparation. It is manufactured at No. 6 East Fourth street, Cincinnati, O., and sold by all Druggists.

It is understood that Mr. Jennings claims no ownership in the large mud hole which is to be seen at all times, except in seasons like the present, of excessive drouth, in the road which turns off east from the southeast corner of Nut-wood. It is believed to be kept by the superior of that district as a sort of a post facto barometer. When there is no mud there, it has been dry for a long time.

[The report on the funeral procession of Lieutenant Joseph W. Hill, last Thursday.]

—Another has fallen with his face to the foe, and our hearts are saddened as we think of him, so young and yet so earnest and devoted in the cause of his country—whose hearty grasp and heart-ier salutation will never greet us again.
Noble Joe Hill! His is a death for the sturdy remnant of the Sixty-sixth to avenger as they add the names of new glories on their banner.

And this is war! Decimating the hearts of fathers, mothers, sisters and brothers, all over the land. God grant us peace! an honorable peace—no other than the heavens fall.

tle, at the residence of Matthew Mason,

Frank and Miss Lydia Ann Johnson.

Democratic County Convention.

PURSUANT to previous notice, the Democracy of Champaign county met at the Court-house in Urbana, Ohio, on Saturday, June 18th, 1894. David Louden-back, Esq., was called to the chair, and James Taylor chosen secretary.

The chairman stated the object of the convention to be that of electing delegates to the District Convention to be held at Piqua, June 22d, for the purpose of electing two delegates to the Chicago Convention, and also to nominate one Presidential elector.

On motion, Thomas Wright, Nathaniel Sceva and Samuel Bowersock, were appointed a committee on credentials, who reported the following delegates: Adams township, G. W. Kiser, C. W. Davis, Elisha Dick; Concord, Harrison Louden-back, J. A. Neal; Goshen, Nathaniel Sceva, C. Howard; Harrison, William Milholland; Jackson, James Davis, Samuel Oran; Johnson, Samuel Bowersock, James McFerran, C. W. Read, Robert Deal; Mad River, David Loudenback, Thomas Wright, Simeon Taylor, Morgan
L. Jenkins, Parker Bryan, Isaac Ball, Rush, Philip Smith, O. Lapham; Salem, Hiram Pett, John Reay, Union, W. D.
Lowry, George Baine, A. A. Hull; Urbana, Thomas Ball, John Poffenbarger, Thomas F. O'Roark, Z. V. Robbins, Denis Cummings; Wayne, Elias Light, David Johnson.

On motion, a committee of one from each township was appointed to select and present to the convention the names of four persons to represent the county as delegates to the district convention.
The committee reported twelve names.

A motion was made by Major Lowry, that the first four reported be chosen as said delegates, which motion was opposed by Elisha Dick, upon the ground that he wanted the convention to select peace Democrats as delegates. After some discussion a vote was taken, and the motion of Major Lowry was carried by a large majority, and Samuel Bowersock, David Loudenback, Nathaniel Sceva and John S. Leonard, were chosen delegates, they being the first four of the twelve names presented to the convention.

The convention being about to adjourn, the following resolution was offered and carried:

Resolved, That the Democracy of Champaign county are in favor of Peace men and Peace measures.

A resolution having been passed that the proceedings of the convention be published in the URBANA UNION and Cincinnati Enquirer, the convention adjourned.

DAVID LOUDENBACK, CHM.
JAMES TAYLOR, Sec'y.

Thistles.

"The thistle, Scotland's pride, Up from freedom's soil it grew."

And the free soil of Urbana seems highly favorable to the growth of the noble plant. In every lot and lawn an abundant crop flourishes in spite of the drouth which discourages plants of less energy and perseverance from growing at all.
Major Patrick, however, if he ever had any Scotch blood in him, has sadly lost his respect for the national emblem, and has declared vigorous war on the whole tribe. All persons within the corporation are notified to cut down all thistles growing on their lots, or streets adjacent to the same, to prevent their going to seed—under a penalty of fifty dollars. If a little attention to the matter now will tend to abate the nuisance in future, it is well worth the trouble—small as it is. It is evident, however, that the movement, to be effectual, should be general, or the exertions of those who observe the ordinance will be neutralized by the remission of those who do not.

An additional motive for cutting down thistles will be found in the fact that their destruction is not only the dictate of self-interest, but of personal safety, for surely no reader of poetry, particularly if he was afflicted in his youth with a tendency to lisp, has forgotten the lamentable catastrophe which befell Mr.
Theophilus Thistle—an accident which would have been entirely prevented by cutting them down before they went to seed, the year before its occurrence.

"Theophilus Thistle, the successful thistle sifter, in sifting a sieve full of unsifted thistles, ran three thousand of unsifted thistles through the thick of his thumb."

"If, then, Theophilus Thistle, this successful thistle sifter, in sifting a sieve full of unsifted thistles ran three thousand unsifted thistles through the thick of his thumb, will not be so foolish as to sift a sieve full of unsifted thistles, and run three thousand unsifted thistles through the thick of his thumb?"

At this season of the year Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, and other affections of the Throat and Lungs prevail. Madame Zadoc Porter's Curative Balsam is a certain and immediate cure. No family should be without a bottle in the house. It is only 25 cents, and will be found worth as many dollars for the cure of the above complaints. It is for sale by all Druggists, at 25 and 50 cents per bottle.
